

SEPTEMBER 2017 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

READY TO DARE
Radical menswear designer's
Berlin live/work space

PENCILS AT DAWN
How the Sketch Club made its mark in Chelsea

9 770264 083194

THE FAIR IN THE SQUARE

THIS SEPTEMBER MAYFAIR'S ELEGANT BERKELEY SQUARE WILL PLAY HOST TO THE NINTH EDITION OF THE ANNUAL LAPADA ART & ANTIQUES FAIR

The attractive neighbourhood around Berkeley Square, a thriving hub of galleries, boutiques, hotels and restaurants, is the perfect setting for over 100 prominent specialist dealers to gather and set up shop for a one-week extravaganza. Among the trove of individually vetted treasures expect to find highly sought-after works in a broad variety of disciplines, including decorative arts, furniture, fine art and jewellery, from antiquity to the present day. LAPADA is the largest society of professional art and antique dealers in Britain and the September fair is the association's flagship event. Here, many dealers will be presenting objects that have not been for sale, or even seen, for generations ■ LAPADA Art & Antiques Fair, Fri 15 to Weds 20 Sept. For more information, ring 020 7823 3511, or visit lapadalondon.com

This page, top row (from left): Flemish School, Portrait of a Lady, c1535, Sphinx Fine Art; hand-knotted 'Puffin' rug, Gideon Hatch; Georgina Warne, The Shell Collector, Jonathan Cooper. Middle row (from left): Julian Trevelyan, Kilns at Burslem, 1938-43, Jenna Burlingham Fine Art; ancient Greek kylix, fourth century BC, ArtAncient; ancient Roman bronze statue of Venus, third century AD, Ancient and Oriental. Bottom row (from left): Austrian Art Deco brooch, c1930, Nigel Milne; George I settee, 1720, MacKinnon Fine Furniture. Opposite, top row (from left): David Hockney, Two Pembroke Studio Chairs, lithograph, 1985, Fairhead Fine Art. 'Malachite' trumeau cabinet, by Ateliers Fornasetti, Holly Johnson. Bottom row (from left): a pair of Chinese terracotta nodding-head figures, c1830, Lennox Cato; Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Coco Ecrivain, 1907, MacConnal-Mason