ART'S DESIRE

Creative highlights from this year's Lapada showcase

By CATRIONA GRAY

Aïcha* (2017) by Carla Kranendonk, Rebecca Hossack Gallery

Kranendonk's large-scale collages are a jamboree of brightly painted paper, embroidery and beadwork, inspired by African culture.

Nocturne Matinale*
by Sonia Delaunay, Galerie Boccara

A rare Aubusson
tapestry designed by the French abstract artist, from about 1970.

Fleurs à la Fenêtre* by Marc Chagall, Willow Gallery

Crimson and white flowers bloom before a cobalt-blue window in this exquisite still-life by the 20th-century master.
Lapada Art and Antiques Fair (www.lapadalondon.org) runs from 14 to 19 September in Berkeley Square, London W1.

Huh?* by Roy Lichtenstein, Fairhead Fine Art

This screenprint
encapsulates Lichtenstein's trademark trope of playing upon comic strips and advertising to create bold works of art.
